Community

Fort Worth is located in the north-central part of Texas, covering an area of 350 miles across Tarrant, Denton, and serves as a service city for Tarrant. The city was built in 1849 and was formerly an army outpost on the edge of the cliff overlooking the Trinity River. Today, Fort Worth retains its Western heritage and traditional architecture and design. The Van Cleben International Piano Competition originated in Fort Worth, and there are several world-class museums in the city.
