

May Newsletter

Senior Prom

Farewells to our beloved seniors! All good things must come to an end, and for our seniors, that time is closer than ever. They capped off their four years at the school with the Senior Prom, held at a wedding venue at Spring Mill Manor. This specific dance is more special than other dances as it is a goodbye to all the seniors' peers. We will surely miss you, seniors; good luck in your future endeavors!

Guest Speaker: Eunice Hong

During our recent event, the students had the privilege of hosting a highly knowledgeable and inspiring guest speaker, a speech pathologist. The guest speaker shared real-life stories of their clients' triumphs, highlighting the profound impact speech pathology can have on improving lives. Moreover, our guest speaker underscored the significance of early intervention in speech and language development, stressing the benefits of timely assessment and therapy. Their dedication to empowering individuals to reach their full communicative potential shone through every word, inspiring all of us to appreciate the transformative power of speech pathology.

CEC Spring Concert

On Thursday, May 11, the halls of Conwell Egan Catholic High School came alive with a vibrant display of artistic talent and melodic harmony. The annual Spring Concert and Art Show, eagerly anticipated by students, parents, and the community, showcased the remarkable artistic endeavors of the school's talented students.

The Spring Concert and Art Show at Conwell Egan Catholic High School served as a testament to the power of the arts in education. It provided a platform for students to develop their creativity, express their emotions, and gain confidence in their abilities. The event also served as a reminder of the unwavering support from parents, teachers, and the community, who recognized and celebrated the importance of artistic expression.

CEC Food Truck Fest

On May 13, CEC hosted their annual Food Truck Festival. From delicious food to special raffle baskets, there were a variety of fun and enjoyable things for students and their families. Students even had the chance to volunteer at the festival and enjoy it to the fullest. The annual tradition has now been ongoing for two years, and every time, it has never failed to impress us!

---

Photos of the Month

---

---

---

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
SIWON LEE

EDITORS
KYUNGJOON LEE
JIWOO KIM
MICHAEL MORINO