PALSgiving Feast

Happy Thanksgiving! In efforts to introduce the American holiday to international students, the Conwell-Egan Student Government and DLFF Foundation held a Thanksgiving feast at the school's cafeteria. The traditional American Thanksgiving meal, which included turkey, stuffing, and pumpkin pie, was all cooked by the one and only principal Mr. Fischer! We had a wonderful evening enjoying the American tradition with all our friends.

College Tour: Princeton University

The dorm students visited Princeton University for this month's college tour. Located in Princeton, New Jersey, Princeton University is one of the top Ivy League colleges and provides a world class academic program through its highly esteemed teaching faculty. The students were given a brief tour around Princeton's outdoor campus, and then had an hour for a self-guided tour. Everyone had a great time visiting such an amazing school!

CEC Fall Play: FOOLS!

On November 4th and 5th, the Conwell-Egan Drama Club presented their fall play: FOOLS by Neil Simon. Kevin Kim, a Korean international student, played a lead role as Snetsky the sheep loser. The dorm students all went to see the play and showed support for Kevin.

Here is a brief summary of the plot: The story follows Leon Steponovich Tolchinsky, a schoolteacher who takes a new job educating Sophia, the daughter of Dr. Zubritsky and his wife, Lenya. Leon soon observes the odities of this village, but complications ensue when he falls in love with his pupil. However, the only way he can possibly be with her is if he rids the village of this treacherous curse. In this comedy Leon learns the meaning of love and patience.

Local Activity: American Dream Mall

The dorm students visited American Dream Mall for this month's local activity. Located in East Rutherford, New Jersey, American Dream is the second biggest mall in the United States. American Dream Mall is not just a great place to enjoy shopping, but also to make wonderful memories with friends or families as it features a theme park and an ice skating rink. The dorm students had a great time at the mall enjoying winter shopping.
