Stuart Hall School was founded in 1844 as the Virginia Female Institute, and from its earliest years, it has provided an excellent liberal arts education and endeavored to develop the character and personal honor of every student. From its first headmaster, the Rev. Richard Phillips, to our current Head of School, Mr. Jason Coady, each leader of what is now Stuart Hall School has set both high academic and high personal standards for the school community.

Community

Staunton is independent city in the U.S. Commonwealth of Virginia. As of the 2020 census, the population was 25,750.¹ In Virginia, independent cities are separate jurisdictions from the counties that surround them, so the government offices of Augusta County are in Verona, which is contiguous to Staunton. Staunton is a principal city of the Staunton-Waynesboro Metropolitan Statistical Area, which had a 2010 population of 118,502. Staunton is known for being the birthplace of Woodrow Wilson, the 28th U.S. president, and as the home of Mary Baldwin University, historically a women's college. source
